Course Schedule

The Course Listings Headers are numbered here as a quick reference to the section clarifying any questions you may have regarding the Class Schedule.

Course Numbers and General Information

Courses are listed alphabetically by discipline and the letter codes in parenthesis by the headers in the schedule indicate the area the courses fall, e.g. Art (H). Those abbreviations are as follows:

NS = Natural and Life Sciences
H = Humanities and Performing Arts (EN105 and EN106 cannot be used for Humanities credit)
SS = Social and Administrative Sciences
INTD = Interdepartmental

Course descriptions are found in the Park University Catalog. Suggested prerequisites (+) are recommended to enhance the probability of success in specific courses. Courses listed are not offered at every Campus Center.

The lettered prefix before each course number represents an abbreviation of the course's discipline. The first digit of the course number represents the level of the course. The following course number system is used:

100-199 Freshman
200-299 Sophomore
300-399 Junior
400-499 Senior

The freshman and sophomore students may not enroll in courses more than one level above their academic classification without explicit permission from the advisor and Dean/Associate Dean (e.g., Freshman may not enroll in 300 level courses without permission; sophomores may not enroll in 400 level courses without permission.)

Missed Final Exams

Only extraordinary circumstances warrant a student being allowed to make up a missed final examination. It is the student’s responsibility to contact the faculty member before the scheduled exam to request permission to take a makeup exam. In the process of determining whether a makeup exam should be allowed, the burden of proof is on the student. The faculty member has the right to request verification of any excuse offered by the student.
