

Greater Kansas City Symposium on Teaching and Learning

Dear Colleagues,

UMKC's Faculty Center for Excellence in Teaching (FaCET) is pleased to host an excellent opportunity for you and your colleagues to explore the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning. Please save the date:

The Greater Kansas City Symposium on Teaching and Learning,

Saturday, April 25, 2009

9:00 am – 4:00 pm,

At the Conference Center of University of Missouri-Kansas City (UMKC)

The 2009 Spring Symposium will focus on issues related to valuing and representing SoTL contributions in higher education. The tentative agenda includes hands-on workshops, a keynote and plenary session, and an interactive poster session. An on-line registration will be available this spring, with a registration fee ($25) to include snacks, lunch, and materials. For those interested in attending, please contact Bibie Chronwall at ChronwallB@umkc.edu to be included in the mailing list.

If you, or other, faculty members are interested in presenting at the poster session, please submit a poster abstract of max 300 words [including title, author(s), affiliation, and project description] by February 27, 2009 to Bob Schubert at schubertr@umkc.edu.

The Greater Kansas City Symposium on Teaching and Learning was founded by the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning at Park University in 2007. Every two years the Symposium is hosted by a different Kansas City area institution. For more information please visit:
www.park.edu/cetl/scholarship.html or <http://www.umkc.edu/provost/initiatives/FaCET/>.