

Program of History Exit Survey
Spring 2007

		Exceeded Expectations	Meet Expectations	Did Not Meet Expectations
Program of History (Mission Statement)
	Provided excellence in undergraduate education	5 (71.4%)	2 (28.6%)	0 (0.0%)
	Prepared students for a diversity of professions in a global society	5 (71.4%)	2 (28.6%)	0 (0.0%)
	Faculty was committed to advancement of reading, writing, research, critical thinking and analytical and interpretative proficiencies.	5 (71.4%)	2 (28.6%)	0 (0.0%)
Program Outcomes
	Obtained a basic knowledge of the alternating lore's and connotations that have maintained western, non-western or pre-modern cultures and societies.	3 (42.9%)	4 (57.1%)	0 (0.0%)
	Interpreted the historical maturation of events, institutions, and social values.	6 (85.7%)	1 (14.3%)	0 (0.0%)
	Exhibited how the past is applicable to the present by affixing a critical perspective to history.	5 (71.4%)	2 (28.6%)	0 (0.0%)
	Discerned primary and secondary sources in terms of plausibility, authenticity, interpretation, audience, inclination, and value for addressing the research question.	5 (71.4%)	1 (14.3%)	1 (14.3%)
	Directed evidence from research to buttress a historical argument to answer a research question.	6 (85.7%)	0 (0.0%)	1 (14.3%)
	Demonstrated an affixment as critical perspective to appraise historical arguments, embracing the quality of the sources, the validity of the interpretations of those sources, and the soundness of the argument's use of evidence to sustain a historical interpretation.	6 (85.7%)	0 (0.0%)	1 (14.3%)
	Mastered the oral and written forms of communication fitting to history.	5 (71.4%)	1 (14.3%)	1 (14.3%)
TOTAL	Average of Expectations	5.1 (72.84%)	1.5 (21.44%)	.40 (5.72%)

10 graduates; 7 completed the Exit Survey (70%).