

Where in the World? Camp

Meet the World at Park University! Do you enjoy learning about other countries and cultures? Do you want to learn to say hello in Kiswahili? Join us as we explore the traditions, culture, food, languages, of five different countries. Students will have a chance to cook a traditional Nepali dish, perform traditional Kenyan dances, learn greetings in various languages, and engage in a variety of arts and crafts projects. Each day, students will be introduced to the traditions and customs of a different country or region and will have a chance to not just learn about but become truly immersed in local culture and traditions.
