

Dr. Tom Johnson

Dr. Johnson is the founding member of the Cyberspace Strategies and Solutions group. He also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the SANS Technology Institute, and was the co-founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the California Sciences Institute. He was one of the founding partners of the Forensic Data Center a company focused on computer forensics.

Dr. Johnson was responsible for developing a Graduate level National Security program offered at two of our National Nuclear Security Administration Laboratories in California and New Mexico, and he currently maintains a Top Secret (DOD) Security Clearance.

Dr. Johnson has published 7 books, 13 referred articles; holds copyright on 4 software programs and his chapter on "Infrastructure Warriors: A Threat to the U.S. Homeland," was published by the Strategic Studies Institute of the U.S. Army War College. In addition to lecturing at the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle Barracks, he has also lectured at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, and numerous Universities.

Dr. Johnson has appeared in both State and U.S. Federal courts as an expert witness and was a member of the Select Ad Hoc Presidential Investigative Committee and consultant to the American Academy of Forensic Sciences in the case of Sirhan B. Sirhan regarding evaluation of ballistics and physical evidence concerning the assassination of United States Senator, Robert F. Kennedy.

Dr. Tom Johnson teaches the following courses at Park University:

- COURSE-01: Identification, Collection and Preservation of Digital Forensic Evidence
Digital Forensic Computer Investigation Certificate
- NS-10: Future Issues and Global Trends in National Security and Intelligence
National Security and Intelligence Analysis Certificate

Contact Wakisha Briggs, Director of Continuing Education at wakisha.briggs@park.edu for any questions.

PARK
UNIVERSITY SM

Dr. Tom Johnson

Dr. Johnson previously was as a member of the Electronic Crime Task Force, U.S. Secret Service- New York and San Francisco field offices, and a member of the FBI Infraguard program. He was a member of the Information Technology Working Group, and served as Chair, Task Force Group on Combating High Technology Crime for the National Institute of Justice. Dr. Johnson was an advisor to the Judicial Council of California on the Court Technology Task Force. He received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Michigan State University and his Doctorate from the University of California, Berkeley.

Dr. Johnson has previously served as a member of the faculty at the University of Wisconsin; University of New Haven; California State University-Sacramento; Washington State University; Webster University; University of Kentucky; University of Arizona; Indiana University-Bloomington; Metropolitan State College-Denver; and has also served as a Visiting Professor at Arizona State University-Tempe. In addition to his role as a faculty member, he has also served in the capacity of Department Chair; Division Chair; Dean; and Associate Vice President at several of the Universities.

Dr. Tom Johnson teaches the following courses at Park University:

- COURSE-01: Identification, Collection and Preservation of Digital Forensic Evidence
Digital Forensic Computer Investigation Certificate
- NS-10: Future Issues and Global Trends in National Security and Intelligence
National Security and Intelligence Analysis Certificate

Contact Wakisha Briggs, Director of Continuing Education at wakisha.briggs@park.edu for any questions.

