

2022 Audited Financial Statements Summary

Park University has fulfilled its responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, generally acceptable accounting principles. The Statement of Financial Position reflects $196.6 million in total assets at year end June 30, 2022 and total liabilities of $44.6 million with $152.0 million in net assets available. Long-term debt totaled $23.5 million while long-term investments totaled $42.9 million. The Consolidated Statement of Activities shows Park University's operations generated $85.6 million in revenue while incurring operating expenses of $83.9 million providing an increase in net assets from operations of $1.7 million. Its overall change in net assets after including nonoperating activity decreased by $14.3 million. The Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows reflects cash equivalents of negative $4.7 million. The Consolidated Statement of Functional Expense reflects total program expenses of $60.4 million, management and general expenses of $23.5 million, for a total of operating expenses of $83.9 million.