Please provide any additional information about or descriptions of the supervised clinical experiences:

Students participate in fieldwork experiences for two semesters and then complete a semester of full-time student teaching. Each student is supervised by an adjunct faculty member and their cooperating teacher. Because students participate in multiple experiences over an academic year, they are only counted one time in the data above.

Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2024-25.

For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

What are CIP Codes?

No teachers prepared in academic year 2024-25

If your program has no teachers prepared, check the box above and leave the table below blank (or clear responses already entered).

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (<https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55>).

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2024-25. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

8. Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

Candidates are required to complete practicum hours in varied settings; complete courses in exceptional children and differentiated instruction, special needs in the classroom, issues in diversity, and teaching linguistically and culturally diverse students; as well as demonstrate an understanding of sociological factors affecting education as well as address diversity in the school setting. We take the students on field trips that include diverse populations to uncover potential teaching biases and to make the students career-ready for all learners. Additionally, we recruit out of Maple Woods Community College and award block credit for our future teachers, so they come in ready to take strictly education content classes. We are also a test-optional institution. This opens the door for many candidates.

Annual Goals: Mathematics

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route teacher preparation program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students.

The pass rates table is populated from files provided by the testing company or state. The table provides information on the performance of the students in your teacher preparation program on each teacher credential assessment used by your state. In cases where a student has taken a given assessment more than once, the highest score on that test is used. In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. \(§205\(a\)\(1\)\(B\)\)

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact RTI's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Undergraduate: EDU 362 Assessment in Education - Core learning outcomes include effective integration of technology into curricula, instruction, and evaluation. EDU 410 Fieldwork III - Core learning outcomes include mastery on the application of effective integration of technology into curricula, instruction, and evaluation. Additionally, technology use is integrated into all courses. All our courses include technology and the teachers must present using technology. Park uses Canvas as our learning management system and when the students are out in the field it is the expectation that they are planning in the school district's online gradebook and lesson plan systems. Additionally, our students must demonstrate an understanding of tiered instruction in EDU375 to ensure all students are getting their needs met both academic and behaviorally.

Teacher Training

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

>> Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program.

(§205(a)(1)(G))

Note: This section is preloaded from the prior year's IPRC.

Teacher Training

1. Provide a description of the activities that prepare general education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

Included in required education courses are core learning outcomes that address the issues associated with working with students with disabilities. All students are required to complete EDU 375 Exceptional Children and Differentiated Learning. This course serves as an introduction to special education and the various types of disabilities a general education teacher may encounter in the classroom. It also introduces curriculum differentiation and RtI to help our future teachers meet the needs of all learners. Throughout their training, students visit SPED classrooms and hear from experts in the field of SPED.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

EDU 375 Exceptional Children and Differentiated Learning also details the roles and responsibilities of the general education teacher in providing services to the child with a disability, and as a member of the IEP team. The Directed Teaching and Practicum Candidates are invited to IEP/504 meetings (if the parent gives permission). Further, we bring in parents of children with special needs to gain their perspective of education for their child.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

Included in required education courses are core learning outcomes that address the issues associated with working with students who may be ESOL. To meet the needs of students who are limited English proficient, all undergraduate students seeking initial certification must take EDU 310 Issues in Diversity and World Cultures and EDU 345 Teaching Linguistically and Culturally Diverse Learners. This coursework engages students in deep reflection and critical analysis of culturally responsive teaching and the impact of diversity in the school setting. Students will learn principles of second language acquisition and characteristics of dialects to promote content-area learning and academic-language development. Specific focus is given to methods and strategies for planning, implementing and assessing effective instructions for English language learners and culturally diverse students.

2. Does your program prepare special education teachers?

- Yes
 No

If yes, provide a description of the activities that prepare special education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

Students in Park's K-12 Mild/Moderate Cross-Categorical Disability BSE program complete coursework that includes coursework on the foundations of special education, assessment methods and language development specific to the needs of students with disabilities. EDU 336 Foundations of Special Education serves as an introduction to the special education profession. EDU 366 Methods of Teaching Students with Cross Categorical Disabilities is designed to develop and enhance the students' knowledge and skills of curricular and instructional methodologies used in the teaching of children and youth with mild/moderate cross categorical disabilities who are typically served in resource rooms and in inclusive classroom settings.

The application of classroom practices, teaching strategies, effective interactions, and instructional accommodations/modifications are included. EDU 347 Family, School and Community Collaboration is designed to develop communication, collaboration, and consultation skills and strategies to create and maintain effective partnerships with families and professionals.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

In addition to EDU 375 which all students seeking certification take, students in our special education program take EDU 336 Foundations of Special Education which covers the legal foundations of special education, and components necessary for effective collaboration and consultation with parents, school personnel, and other professionals. It also covers the process and procedures for providing special education services to meet the educational, social, and personal goals of students with disabilities. The recommended practices of the Council for Exceptional Children serve as the foundation for understanding the roles, knowledge, and competencies of the special education teacher. Each of the students presents an in-depth presentation to their classmates on an exceptionality of their choice, so they have background knowledge on a variety of exceptionalities. There is a lesson on medical terminology that teachers need to know and have an understanding of when in IEP meetings.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

In addition to EDU 375 that all students seeking certification take, students in our special education program take EDU 336 Foundations of Special Education which covers the legal foundations of special education, components necessary for effective collaboration and consultation with parents, school personnel and other professionals. It also covers the process and procedures for providing special education services to meet the educational, social and personal goals for students with disabilities. Contextual Information Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card (see below). The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

MoDESE Annual Performance Reports for Educator Preparation Programs and Title II final reports are available. All of the programs that the SOE offers are fully accredited by the state of Missouri. The Park University School of Education (SOE) Teacher candidates are prepared to demonstrate a thorough understanding of professional and pedagogical knowledge and skills as delineated in professional, state, and institutional standards. They are required to develop meaningful learning experiences to facilitate learning for all students as well as provide multiple explanations and instructional strategies so that all students learn. They reflect on their practice and make necessary adjustments to enhance student learning. They know how students learn and how to make ideas accessible to them. They consider school, family, and community contexts in connecting concepts to students' prior experience and applying the ideas to real-world issues. SOE candidates in advanced programs develop expertise in certain aspects of professional and pedagogical knowledge and contribute to the dialogue based on their research and experiences. They take on leadership roles in the professional community and collaborate with colleagues to contribute to school improvement and renewal. SOE teacher candidates reflect a thorough understanding of the relationship of content and content-specific pedagogy delineated in professional, state, and institutional standards. They have in-depth understanding of the content that they plan to teach and are able to provide multiple explanations and instructional strategies so that all students learn. They present the content to students in challenging, clear, and compelling ways, using real-world contexts and integrating technology appropriately. The SOE, with the involvement of its professional community, is regularly evaluating the capacity and effectiveness of its assessment system, which reflects Park's School of Education Conceptual Framework and incorporates candidate proficiencies outlined in professional and state standards. The SOE regularly examines the validity and utility of the data produced through assessments and makes modifications to keep abreast of changes in assessment, technology, and in professional standards. Decisions about SOE candidate performance are based on multiple assessments made at multiple points before program completion and in practice after completion of programs. Data show a strong relationship of performance assessments to candidate success throughout their programs and later in classrooms or schools. The SOE conducts reviews to establish fairness, accuracy, and consistency of its assessment procedures and unit operations. It also makes changes in its practices consistent with the results of these studies. Our elementary candidates and SPED candidates leave Park University credentialed and certified to teach Project Lead the Way PLTW – Launch. They are trained to teach PLTW from PreK-5. This enables prepares future PLTW teachers to tap into students exploratory nature, engage them in learning that feels like play, and encourage them to keep discovering – now and for years to come. CIP Codes reported here as 13.10 (Special Education), 13.1302 (Art), 13.1306 (Foreign Language) are reported to IPEDS and other agencies using CIP Code 13.1206 (Multiple Levels).
