Founded in 1875 in Parkville, Mo., a suburb of Kansas City, Park University is a comprehensive, independent institution that is a national leader in higher education. In 2000, Park achieved university status and currently serves 4,950 students at 19 campuses in 14 states and online, including campuses in Parkville, Mo.; Gilbert, Ariz.; Barstow, Calif.; Columbus, Ohio; Austin and El Paso, Texas; and at 13 military installations across the country.

Serving an ethnically diverse student population and non-traditional adult learners has, for many years, been central to Park's educational mission. Even in its first year, Park University enrolled women students as well as men, something that was unusual at the time; and two of the original 17 students were Native Americans. Park was also an early integrator when it welcomed African-American students to live in Park's residence halls in the 1950s.

Park continues to increase access to higher education by offering the quality undergraduate and graduate degrees students desire at locations, times and delivery formats that best serve their needs. The University has been ranked among the top private colleges/universities in the country for adult learners, as well as for annual return on investment, and it is consistently ranked among the top least expensive private schools in the country.

Providing such access has developed considerable diversity among the student population, with 500 international students from 64 countries, and a 61 percent student representation from racial, ethnic and cultural groups typically underrepresented in colleges and universities. In addition, extracurricular activities and championship-caliber athletic programs (NAIA) complement Park's outstanding scholastic programs at its Parkville and Gilbert campuses.

Park University offers numerous degree programs online, and it maintains a long-standing relationship with the U.S. military for which it has been recognized as one of the largest providers of online undergraduate education to military learners worldwide. Since 2009, Park has received international recognition by various military-related publications as a top military friendly college/university. In addition, Park is among the top-ranked "best for vets" private college/university in the country.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF PARK UNIVERSITY

Dear Park University Class of 2026,

As we celebrate the culmination of your academic journey at Park University, it is my honor to extend heartfelt congratulations to each of you. Today marks a significant milestone in your lives, and I am immensely proud of your dedication and perseverance to reach this momentous occasion. Your achievements reflect your individual efforts and contribute to the rich legacy of excellence that defines Park University.

Looking ahead, I am thrilled to share that as you step into the next chapter of your lives, you do so during a remarkable time in Park's history. In 2025, Park University celebrated its 150th anniversary. This extraordinary milestone underscores the enduring commitment to education and community at our institution's core since its inception in 1875. After you cross the Commencement stage, carry with you the values and knowledge you have gained here, and let them guide you in positively impacting the world.

As you transition from students to alumni, remember that your connection to Park University does not end with graduation; it evolves. You are now lifetime Park University Alumni Association members, joining a global network of accomplished individuals who share a common bond in their Park experience. Embrace this community, stay connected and continue to make us proud with your accomplishments.

I extend my warmest wishes for your continued personal and professional success. May your journey be filled with purpose, growth and meaningful contributions to your communities and the world.

Congratulations,

MISSION AND VISION STATEMENTS

MISSION STATEMENT

Park University offers access to a transformative education that equips learners to realize their individual purpose, navigate their professional journeys, and thrive through purposeful work.

VISION STATEMENT

Park University will be nationally recognized for a distinctive model that integrates students' real lives into the classroom, prioritizes real learning through career-integrated pathways, and equips students to drive real impact in their communities.

CORE VALUES

Park University's core values describe who we are, what we do and how we do it. They guide our educational strategy, our institutional behavior and our relationships with business partners, suppliers, students, faculty, communities and each other.

PURPOSE — We empower students and each other to discover and pursue meaningful paths.

BELONGING — We create a supportive community where all voices, from our local communities to the global village, matter and all are treated with civility and respect.

INTEGRITY — We act with honesty, transparency, and trust.

EXCELLENCE — We pursue the highest standards in teaching, learning, leadership, and service.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Crispin Rea, '08, J.D.

Kansas City, Mo., City Councilman

Crispin Rea represents Kansas City, Mo. on its city council, serving the 4th District as an at-large member, as well as serving on the city council's finance, governance and public safety committee.

Rea's service to the community has included volunteerism and board membership with the Mattie Rhodes Center, Police Athletic League, Mothers in Charge and the UMKC Law Foundation. He was previously elected to the Jackson County (Mo.) Democratic Committee representing the historic Northeast's 13th Ward. He is also a union member of the International Association of Fire Fighters, Local 42.

Rea was born in Kansas City, Mo., and grew up the youngest of three children on the City's eastside. His mother worked at the Local Investment Commission where she provided after-school programming and social services for low-income families. His father was a forklift driver with the U.S. Postal Service for 36 years and was a member of the Postal Mail Handlers Union.

Rea was awarded an athletic scholarship to Park University and was a first-generation college graduate earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science and public administration in 2008. While finishing college, he began work in a staff position in the Kansas City, Mo., mayor's office.

In 2010, Rea was elected to the Kansas City (Mo.) Public Schools Board of Education as the youngest member ever elected to serve on the board and the only Hispanic board member during his term. He went on to serve as vice president and was a leader of the reform movement that brought much needed stability to the school district.

After obtaining a master's degree in public administration from UMKC's Bloch School of Management and a juris doctorate degree from UMKC's School of Law, Rea began his career as a prosecuting attorney. He served eight years in the Jackson County (Mo.) Prosecutor's Office, spending most of his time in the Special Victims Unit prosecuting those who sexually and physically abused women and children.

Before becoming a prosecutor, Rea was a case worker with the Kansas City No Violence Alliance. His work aimed at keeping high-risk individuals from becoming victims or perpetrators of violent crime by offering resources and programs to build a new life free of violent crime.

He and his wife, Emma, are active members of the Valentine Neighborhood Association and enjoy spending time with their rescue pit bulls, Indie and Lucy, and their two sons.

ACADEMIC ROBES AND REGALIA

The pageantry and color of an academic convocation come from medieval Europe where academic robes and regalia were adapted from Ecclesiastical garb. Most robes are black to symbolize the democracy of scholarship, since they cover any dress indicating social standing worn beneath. Bachelors' gowns are cut with long, pointed sleeves, while masters' gowns feature closed, slit sleeves. Doctoral gowns are full-cut with double-belled sleeves and bars of velvet trim.

The hood, originally a simple cowl attached to the gown, bears the heaviest symbolism of the academic costume. The bordering color indicates the field of learning in which the degree is earned. The square cap, or mortarboard, originated in the 13th century at the University of Paris and came to England in Tudor times. Round caps originally were reserved for doctoral degree holders. Doctoral tassels are usually gold, with other degrees represented by black. However, in recent years, tassels have come to match the lining of the hood to indicate the field of learning. The Honors Medallion symbolizes completion of the Honors Academy which involves independent development of projects with the assistance of faculty mentors. The stole is worn as an indication of this recognition.

CEREMONIAL SYMBOLS

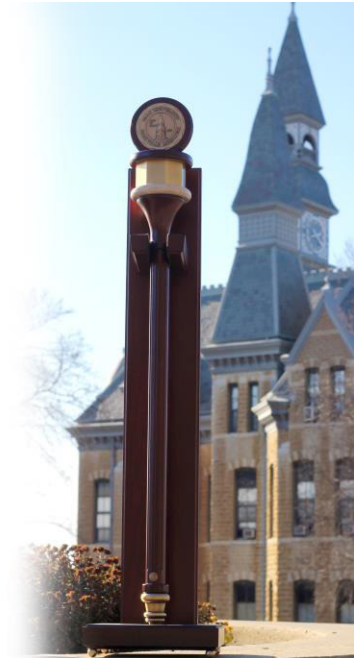

Presidential Medallion

There have been two presidential medallions in the history of Park University. The first, bestowed upon Acting President H. Melton Mohler by the student council in 1964, is a polished brass cross pattée with a sextant, representing the navigational mission of the president to guide the University, in the center. The insignia is surrounded by two red and yellow concentric circles and the words Fides et Labor, the University's motto. The presidential medallion of today, presented in April 2002 to President Beverley Byers-Pevitts, Ph.D., is made of gold-plated bronze, with the names and dates of tenure of each former president engraved on the links of the chain. The medallion symbolizes the president's responsibility for the welfare of the institution.

Ceremonial Mace

The ceremonial mace is among the oldest symbols of authority. Once used as weapons by royal bodyguards to protect kings, cities and parliaments eventually began using them, and the heads of medieval universities later followed suit. In academia today, the ceremonial mace has become one of the treasured symbols of office and is representative of the power of an institution. Park University's 42-inch ceremonial mace was commissioned by President Greg Gunderson, Ph.D., in 2017. In the center of the mace head is Park University's Mackay Hall clock tower and the school motto, Fides et Labor. The antique bronze, octagon-shaped platform that supports the mace head has a cherry wood upper disk and a lower disc made with limestone mined from Park University's Parkville Campus, serving as a representation of Park University's strong foundation.

The Academic Bell

The Park University Academic Bell was commissioned in 2018 by President Greg Gunderson, Ph.D., and is used to commemorate the beginning of an undergraduate's progress toward graduation. During First Year Seminar, a required freshman course, students are given an opportunity to strike the bell. Later, during the May commencement week, graduating seniors are encouraged to ring the bell in Mackay Hall to signal the completion of their studies. The solid brass bell, six inches in diameter, has a dark patina finish and is mounted atop a walnut stained hardwood base. "Fides et Labor," the Park University motto, is engraved across the top, serving as a reminder that faith and work remain important components of the academic journey.

MESSAGE FROM THE ALUMNI COUNCIL

Dear Graduates,

On behalf of the Park University Alumni Council, congratulations on reaching this extraordinary milestone. Today you join a global network of more than 80,000 proud alumni — individuals whose lives and leadership continue to shape the legacy of Park University. While our history spans more than 150 years, it is graduates like you who carry our mission forward into the future.

Commencement is both a celebration and a beginning. The resilience, determination and purpose that brought you to this moment will guide you in the chapters ahead. Wherever your path leads — graduate school, military service, the workforce or service to your community — you will always have a home at Park.

I encourage you to stay connected. Update your information at park.edu/alumni, join us for Homecoming and alumni events, and remain engaged with the Park community. Your relationship with Park does not end today — it grows stronger with each new accomplishment.

We are incredibly proud of you and excited to see the difference you will make in the world.

With admiration and warmest congratulations,
Eric Bonner, '08
President, Park University Alumni Council
